

Bildbeschreibung

Einleitungsteil, der kurz subsummiert, auf welche Problematik der Künstler abzielt.	In the drawing the artist René Magritte presents us with the issue of the destruction of our planet by man.
Beschreibung der Darstellung. Hier finden nur aussagekräftige Details, keinesfalls jede Nebensächlichkeits Erwähnung.	A tree has been chopped down. The axe has been left close to the tree stump. Surprisingly, one of the tree's roots seems to have grown round the axe's handle, pinning it to the ground.
Der letzte Teil enthält die Interpretation des Bildes: Was sagt der Künstler aus, was prangert er an, was überzeichnet er?	In my opinion, the tree stump stands for the earth, whereas the axe symbolizes humankind. After being destroyed ruthlessly by man, our planet is taking revenge through a silent, irreversible and deadly embrace. The earth is getting its own back. It is repaying evil for evil.
